On 26 November 1953, the following information was obtained from Informant 0030:

Felix FELIX, former (Schutzstaffel - Elite Guard) General, allegedly spends most of his time in northern Germany and goes occasional visits only to Munich, Germany. Competent American agencies in Munich, Germany allegedly consider FELIX persona non grata. He was, however, charged to foster relations with the French General staff and the FIS (French Intelligence Service). Apparently he has large funds at his disposal and frequents only the most fashionable and expensive establishments in Munich, Frankfurt, Bonn, etc. According to FELIX, his absence from Munich and his frequent journey are due to his preparations for the formation of a European Legion, a task allegedly assigned to him by the highest West German and Western Power authorities. In addition, FELIX is reportedly engaged in the unification of all Relief Organizations of the (Hilfsorganisationen der Waffen-SS - HWA) in Western Germany. The leader of the organization is reportedly Dr. (Fm) [redacted], Berlin, Germany. (End) Both former Generals in the (Fm) [redacted] and (Fm) [redacted], have reportedly accused FELIX of exercising political influence in all the organizations he has approached. (B-3)
